

NOMINATION INFORMATION

Please fill out this nomination form completely. We will send an application package to the company referencing your firm.

Why nominate a business in today's economic climate?

Family businesses are the backbone of the economy. They were here from the beginning, have faced good and bad times, been through thick and thin before. They will help bring us out of this economic downturn. It's time to celebrate family businesses for their vital part in our economy, for the part they played in the past and the part they will play in the future.

Who can nominate?

Nominations may be submitted by anyone. You may nominate your own company.

Why should you nominate a family business?

1. To promote and reward a successful Maine-based family business
2. To show appreciation to the positive contributions that a family business has made to the community.
3. To highlight positive contributions that a family business has made to its employees.
4. To show your support to nominated family and business.
